Conventionally, the verb in a short answer is in the same tense as the verb in the question. Also, the verb in the short answer should agree in person and number with its subject. Why do we use short answers? We do not use only Yes or No to answer a question. This is not polite. We use short answers. Here are some examples: Created by Cynthia Blevins, Abilene ISD, October, 2012, updated 2013 1 STAAR Sample Short Answer Questions Short Answer Questions. These questions are often called 'comprehension' questions and they are very common in English classrooms all over the world. Most students have answered these kinds of questions before and for this reason, most students tend to do quite well with them.
