The Ego and the Id (German: Das Ich und das Es) is a prominent paper by Sigmund Freud, the founder of psychoanalysis. It is an analytical study of the human psyche outlining his theories of the psychodynamics of the id, ego and super-ego, which is of fundamental importance in the development of psychoanalysis. Theses can come in different forms; you may be writing a traditional thesis, thesis by compilation or an exegesis.

Whichever type you are doing, they all have one common feature: your thesis needs to have an argument (some disciplines use key message, narrative or exposition). Philosophical fiction refers to the class of works of fiction which devote a significant portion of their content to the sort of questions normally addressed in discursive philosophy.
