In "From Pimp Stick to Pulpit" there is scant attention paid to the subject's conversion and no reference to a pulpit, or to the consequences of his actions prior to, or after, his acceptance of Christ. The book does communicate well the human side of each of the characters, but in the balance all are found wanting. This is written by the sister of the legendary Chicago pimp Magic Don Juan. Its an entertaining short read. Lots of wild over the top stories from the heyday of a pimp that was "born again" and became an even worse hustler, a Jesus freak preacher.
