If a woman invites a business partner to a restaurant, she pays. If someone says, 'Let's go to a restaurant,' that means everyone pays for himself/herself; if a man offers to pay for a woman, she can agree. Good manners and proper protocol can make, or break, a promising business relationship. Now, more than ever, this expanded, and updated edition of The Modern Rules of Business Etiquette is needed in every law firm. This book will help you build better and deeper relationships, and feel more confident than you ever have, no matter what the business setting.
