An empirically-derived, changeable risk factor present in an offender upon assessment that is used for purposes of risk assessment, prison classification, prison re-classification, parole-risk, treatment, and release. Over the past 30 years, chef Frank Stitt has been credited for significantly raising the bar in Alabama's culinary scene. As if the success of his restaurant Highlands Bar and Grill and the roster of culinary talents that have launched their own successful careers after spending time in his kitchen weren't impressive enough, he's now ...I've been listening to the newly-issued stereo pressing of the Beach Boys' "Pet Sounds" since it arrived in the mail a few days ago. I have to tell you, this is one of the best reissues I've heard in recent years. I start with the radio, showing KICY mixing with KOA, then from time to time I turn on KICY's web stream to show it's the same song. 73 (Tim [image: image.png] 0700 UT Jan 3, ibid.) Here's another nice clip, the start of another locally-produced music program, with a nice mention of "here in Western Alaska." 73 (Tim ibid.) Nice catch, Tim! About 30 years ago from Rancho Bernardo (at home) I ...
