When President Kennedy issued his well-known challenge to reach the moon and return safely before the end of the 1960s, the immediate responsibility for undertaking the task fell to 54-year-old NASA director James E. Webb. Powering Apollo: James E. Webb of Nasa (NEW SERIES IN N A S A HISTORY) | W. Henry Lambright | ISBN: 9780801849022 | Kostenloser Versand für alle Bücher mit Versand und Verkauf durch Amazon. Powering Apollo: James E. Webb of NASA User Review - Not Available - Book Verdict James E. Webb was not a household name during the 1960s Apollo moon program, as were many of the astronauts. What a great book and James Webb writes it so well. This is one of the first of the new history books about NASA and the history of NASA during Apollo. If it weren't for NASA, there would be no Apollo. But NASA at that time was not the huge organization it is now. This book takes a look at the formative years and of the tragedy of Apollo 1.
