Ship models or model ships are scale models of ships. They can range in size from 1/6000 scale wargaming miniatures to large vessels capable of holding people. A carrack was a three- or four-masted ocean-going sailing ship that was developed in the 13th to 15th centuries in Europe (mainly Portugal). Evolved from the single-masted cog, the carrack was first used for European trade from the Mediterranean to the Baltic and quickly found use with the newly found wealth and status of the trans-Atlantic ...Literature and links on ship modelling, museums, historic ships and replicas. Many times I have been asked about literature on model ship building and specific plans for some ships. In the section Ship Design Analysis we will examine what spacecraft warships will need, what they won't need, and what sort of tasks they will likely be required to perform.
