One of the great masterpieces of Western religious thought, the Zohar represents an attempt to uncover hidden meanings behind the world of appearances. It's the central work in the literature of the Kabbalah, the Jewish mystical tradition. No book in Judaism is subject to more misperception than The Zohar, the central text of Kabbalah. Contrary to popular perception, The Zohar is not a coherent explanation of Kabbalistic thought. Rather, The Zohar is simply a commentary on the Torah, albeit a mystical one.
